

You've Been Booed!

This air is cool, the season fall
soon Halloween will come to all.

With witches and wizards, spells galore

Trick-or-treaters soon at the door.

The students of Hogwarts needed something to do,
a wizard conjured up these treats for you.

The treats that came with this short note, are yours to keep,
enjoy them all.

Excitement grows when friends like you will keep this moving through the neighborhood.

Neighbors will have smiling faces,
none will guess who BOOed which places!

Take a day to work your spell,
but keep it secret! Disguise it well.
